

Emma Caulfield

Invites Year 6 teachers to join her in exploring everything you need to know if you are

New to Year 6 (Literacy)

Wednesday 3rd October 2018
9.30am to 3.30pm

SUMMARY

Teaching Year 6 Literacy has many challenges that are special to this year group such as: a reading test, a SPaG test, and teacher assessment of writing and moderation. There is also the thorny issue of engaging and motivating pupils, and stretching the higher achievers. All of these areas are covered on this short course.

PROGRAMME

- Sessions 1 & 2: Reading at Year 6 – pitch, expectations and best practice. Preparation for the reading test.
- Sessions 3 & 4: Writing at Year 6 – pitch, expectations and best practice. Preparation for teacher assessment and moderation.
- Session 5: Grammar, punctuation and spelling expectations. Tips for teaching.

VENUE Old Trafford Community Academy, Malvern Street, Old Trafford, Manchester, M15 4FL

Emma Caulfield Profile – Currently Emma is greatly in demand nationally as a Literacy consultant offering an extensive portfolio of professional development programmes, training and support. She has worked as a teacher in London, Liverpool, Trafford and Manchester; been Assistant Head and Deputy Head; and worked for Manchester City Council as a Literacy consultant, including a role as interim Primary Strategy Lead for Literacy. Emma is a commissioned KS1 Moderator and a Talk for Writing trainer and consultant, and works in a variety of settings supporting schools to improve attainment and achievement in Literacy. She has completed a 5 day course, with the National Handwriting Association, on teaching handwriting; written over 60 guided reading plans (pink to lime bands) for Big Cat Collins; and is the author of 'Planning to Teach Writing – A Practical Guide for Primary School Teachers' published by Routledge in 2016.

HOW TO BOOK

Either via the website:

www.literacyfocus.co.uk or by emailing emma@timewiseva.co.uk for a booking form

Cost

£150
(Lunch included)

Payment should be made in full before the course.